NEVER STOP LEARNING

Is the oldest active pitching coach in the Majors.

"He's one of the few people who's really been able to keep that old-school mentality and take the best things he learned from that era and bring it to the analytical age. When you have a guy that can kind of blend both, you can really rely on his opinions and advice to make you a better pitcher."

Lance McCullers Jr.

"He's always been a curious mind. I don't think age has anything to do with it. I think he truly is always seeking the truth and he doesn't stop. He knows it."

2023 RANKINGS

Enters the season rated as the D-backs' No. 8 prospect by The Athletic (No. 18 by MLB Pipeline).

2022 REVIEW

- Began the season with High-A Hillsboro, hitting .300 (12-for-40) with 3 doubles, 1 home run, 6 RBI and 4 stolen bases in 10 games.
- Was promoted to Double-A Amarillo on April 22…hit .276 (120-for-434) with 30 doubles, 2 triples, 12 home runs, 51 RBI, 65 walks and 22 stolen bases in 110 games for the Sod Poodles.

Was a member of the 2021 graduating class from the D-backs' academic program, which has helped 79 Minor Leaguers in the organization to achieve their high school equivalence diploma since 2015.

"The academic program that the organization offered was something my family and I really liked. Even though playing professional baseball is one of my dreams, I never gave up on my education because I feel that it's also very important. I'm so grateful that the D-backs allowed me to fulfill that dream. My family was very happy when they saw me in my cap and gown."

Barrosa on his academic achievement.

"He is a very good example for other players like him. In the transition of coming to a new country and becoming a professional player, he put his schooling on hold. But we conveyed to him that an education is something that lasts forever, and he returned to the program and graduated. I felt extremely proud of him because I remembered how important education was for his parents and how happy they were to see that, in addition to viewing these youngsters as professional players, we also cared about the human side."

Mariana Patraca, Coach, Latin America Coordinator

Combined to hit .285 (111-for-389) with 26 doubles, 3 triples, 7 home runs, 37 RBI, 29 walks and stolen bases between Single-A Visalia and High-A Hillsboro.

HITTING HISTORY

- His 19 homers are seventh most by a pitcher since 1901.

- Hit a pair of home runs on Opening Day 2017 @ D-backs, making him the only pitcher to hit multiple home runs in the first game of the season.

YOU CAN'T MAKE THIS STUFF UP

- Is adept with either hand…he shoots a bow, bats, writes and ropes righthanded but throws from the left side.
- Started playing coach-pitch baseball at age 4 against 7-year olds.
- His father, Kevin, wouldn't let him throw a curveball until after he had a driver's license.
- He never in his life owned a suit prior to winning Sports Illustrated's Sportsman of the Year Award in 2014.

NO TITLE WOULD DO THIS JUSTICE

- In Spring 2014, he and his wife, Ali, were roping cattle when Madison was startled by a large snake…he grabbed an ax and hacked it to pieces.
- When Ali, an expert field dresser, examined what was left of the snake, she found 2 baby jackrabbits inside pieces of it and extracted them…a short while later the Bumgarners noticed that one of the rabbits was still alive.
- Ali brought the rabbit back to their apartment and for the next few days kept it warm and bottle-nursed it…the rabbit soon was healthy enough for them to release into the wild.

PART-TIME MECHANIC

As a 20-year-old rookie in 2010, the Giants' team bus broke down on a trip in Colorado…Bumgarner was sitting in the back, yelled, "I'll take care of it," got off the bus, popped the hood and helped get the bus running again.

NEIGH

- He and his wife, Ali, own horses in the Phoenix area and enjoy riding them in their free time…while with the Giants, he would tow his horses with him to Spring Training each year from North Carolina to Scottsdale.
- On his 125-acre ranch in North Carolina, he estimates he has 50 cows and 20 horses.
- On Opening Day 2015, he rode a horse around the warning track at Oracle Park to raise the 2014 World Series banner in center field.
- Growing up, his family owned horses, so he learned to ride at a very young age.

YEE-HAW

- At age 17, he began competing with his wife Ali's father and brother in team-roping and considers it one of his hobbies…in the 2019-20 offseason, he won a competition in Wickenburg, Ariz. under the pseudonym Mason Saunders.
- In 2010, former teammate Jeremy Affeldt invited him and his wife to stay at his house during a homestand and observed urban cattle-roping in action.

"He practiced roping cows by roping my lawn furniture," Affeldt told SFGate.com in 2010. "He's good at it. I'd come home and he'd be spinning this rope. He's lassoing all my furniture. Then he wants to make me walk this weird, funky walk while he's trying to lasso my foot."

SMALL-TOWN LIVIN'

His father's family goes back 100 years in Caldwell County, N.C.…located 4 miles southwest of Hudson and 10 miles northwest of Hickory, one area is called "Bumtown" for all the Bumgarners living on both sides of Deal Mill Road.

RURAL NORTH CAROLINA

Graduated from South Caldwell High School in Hudson, N.C., a town of 2,800 people, 90 minutes northwest of Charlotte…notable alumni include country musician Eric Church.

"You wave at everybody you see, pretty much."

ALMOST A HEEL

Was committed to play baseball at the University of North Carolina before signing with the Giants as the 10th overall pick in the 2007 draft…the Tar Heels also had Matt Harvey and Rick Porcello as part of that same recruiting class.

CASHIN' IN HIS RIDE

Sold his 2018 Ford Shelby GT350 Custom Coupe for $88,000 at the 2020 Barrett Jackson car auction.

PERSONAL

- Married high school sweetheart, Ali, on Valentine's Day 2010…the story of giving her a 5-day-old bull calf as a wedding present has been exaggerated…he says Ali wanted a calf and he bought her one.
- He was married in a white, open-collar shirt and blue jeans while carrying a pocket-knife.

UNLUCKY INJURIES

- Was on the injured list from April 21-July 14, 2017 with bruised ribs and a sprained left AC joint after a dirt bike accident on an off-day in Colorado.
- Fractured his left hand on a comebacker during Spring Training in 2018 and was on the injured list from March 28-June 4.

OUTSTANDING ACCOLADES

Named as the D-backs' and USA TODAY's 2022 Minor League Player of the Year after hitting .303 (108-for-356)/1.026 OPS with 22 doubles, 8 triples, 23 home runs, 61 RBI, 65 walks and 31 stolen bases in 91 games between Double-A Amarillo and Triple-A Reno.

- Entered the season ranked as the D-backs' No. 1 prospect by both Baseball America (42nd overall) and MLB Pipeline (47th).

A SCOUT'S PERSPECTIVE

While recovering from shoulder surgery in 2021, spent majority of the season watching D-backs games in the scout's section behind home plate at Chase Field with the club's advance scout, Jeff Gardner.

"[Jeff Gardner] would be with our Major League players every day and then be sitting behind home with me every night. He was gracious enough to let me come into his workspace. It was really, really great for him to let me do that. But it was a really neat look at the preparation piece of it and into some of the different approaches that our hitters were having toward their pitcher and seeing how they executed that. Just some of the finer details that I think I definitely wouldn't have had if I didn't have access to that. So, I'm super grateful to him for letting me barrage in there, and also to Josh Barfield, in my case, for brainstorming with me about different things that I can do during this time to help me get better."

Corbin Carroll to the Arizona Republic in 2021.

"We told him he could come as much as he wants. We did not think it was going to be every day. We should have known better. Knowing him, that's the way he does things. I don't know that he missed more than a couple games."

Josh Barfield, D-backs' Director of Player Development, to the Arizona Republic in 2021.

Participated in the 2022 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game on July 16 in Los Angeles @ Dodger Stadium.

Spent the entire season at the D-backs' Alternate Training Site at Salt River Fields.

"There was that personal piece to it, that personal development, of facing better pitchers than I would have, working with higher level coaches and understanding a little bit better of what would be expected at the big league level. But also, learning to play with guys like Alek Thomas, guys that hopefully I'm playing with for a long time. I think that was so valuable because in a normal year we probably would have been playing on two different fields."

GIVING BACK

- Participated in the D-backs' Give Back Homeward Bound Shopping Spree in December 2022 and helped 1 of 25 teenagers with spending their $250…assisted in wrapping the teen's gifts after shopping and signed autographs.
- Also visited with over 20 boys and girls at Banner Children's Hospital at Thunderbird in Glendale in December 2022 with Drey Jameson.

THANKS MOM!

- Drove with his mom, Pey-Lin, from Seattle to Scottsdale, arriving the day before the D-backs' 2020 Alternate Training Site opened.
- With "a lot of nervous energy" the day before camp started, Carroll and his mom went to Chaparral High School in Scottsdale and his mom threw him batting practice.
- After they were done and back at their car in the parking lot, they realized the gate was locked and were stuck…the D-backs ended up sending Luis Gonzalez, whose son Jacob graduated from Chaparral, over to get them out.

"She's pretty good. She's a lefty too, so that's a good angle for me to see."

Corbin Carroll to MLB.com's Steve Gilbert.

ICHIRO INSPIRATION

- His first baseball memory is of being a young boy sitting in the upper deck on the first-base side at Safeco Field watching Ichiro Suzuki play right field.
- Before the 2019 draft, the Mariners, who knew Carroll had grown up idolizing Ichiro and his iconic swing, invited him to visit Safeco Field and made sure the 2 met.
- Carroll talked with Ichiro about hitting and took away an important lesson from his lifelong idol: "Be consistent in your routine."

"So by keeping the same routine every day, you can at least have the confidence to say that you went out there with 100% confidence in your preparation. I think I take a lot of confidence in my ability to prepare."

Corbin Carroll to MLB.com's Steve Gilbert.

- To this day, Carroll's phone screensaver is a photo with Ichiro from the spring of 2019 holding a tiny No. 51 jersey, Carroll's first-ever jersey as a kid.

Combined to hit .299 with 9 doubles, 7 triples, 2 home runs and 20 RBI in 42 games with Rookie AZL D-backs and Short-Season A Hillsboro.

ALMOST A BRUIN

Committed to play baseball at UCLA as a Physiological Sciences major.

HIGH SCHOOL

- Is a 2019 graduate of Lakeside School.

- Notable alumni include co-founders of Microsoft, Bill Gates and Paul Allen, as well as Adam West, who played the original Batman in the 1960s TV show.
- Selected to the All-League Academic Team and didn't receive a B since his sophomore year.

"Corbin is a true 5-tool athlete," said Max Engel, head coach at crosstown Seattle Preparatory School. "He has a presence on the baseball field like few I have ever seen in my coaching career. He is so mechanically sound and he never seems to make a bad swing. Corbin is just a force."

FAMILIA IS EVERYTHING

- Father, Juan, and grandfather, Esteban, were in attendance when he collected his first Major League hit on April 9 @ Cardinals (PH 2B off T. McFarland).
- Juan traveled 17 hours from Venezuela to make it in time for the series…his mother, Maria, was unable to travel, but with the help of Pirates' staff, he was able to record a short thank you video from the stadium and upload it for his entire family to see…eventually gave the game ball to his mom, saying, "no one deserves it more than her."

"I would describe that as the best moment of my life, one hundred percent. I found my family in the stands and watched my dad jumping a lot. It was amazing. Talking to them after the game, I cried a little bit, so emotional. I was dreaming about that hit for probably 14 years. It was something unbelievable, running the bases i couldn't feel my body. Amazing."

DOMINICAN IDOL

Growing up, Pedro Martínez was his hero because of the way he went about his business and attacked hitters…met Martínez for the first time in 2019 and said, "to see someone that has achieved so many great things in his life and still remain humble and willing to share a few moments to talk to a young player like myself was a special moment."

- With members of his community, officials, clergy and media in attendance, his family officially handed the keys of the unit to the local fire chief in a public demonstration and ceremony.

"I like to make a donation to the community every year and I had been thinking of what I could do for a while, something that could help the community for a long time. I had the thought of donating a truck because I knew it would be very beneficial and because they were in need of one for a long time."

DON'T MESS WITH PAPÁ

Dad, Miguel Sr., trained as an amateur boxer in his youth, but was unable to pursue a pro career due to a lack of resources and a mentor who could guide him…eventually moved on to work in the meat industry…although Miguel Sr. never tried to turn his son into a fighter, he instilled a strong work ethic and discipline in him.

"He always taught me that you have to work and nothing is easily earned. He worked as a butcher and would tell me 'you're waking up early and coming to work with me so you can see what work is'. I would help him in the morning and then go to the field. Thankfully, I grew up with that work ethic and we are here now."

His family moved to the greater Phoenix area when he was 7 and realizes the positive effect it had on his long-term baseball career.

"Looking back I've realized how important it was…and what a huge benefit it was for me to play baseball year-round. To be able to go outside in 120-degree heat in the summer or 80-degree weather in the winter and just be able to play every single month of the year."

2018

- Limited to just 13 starts with the Brewers due to a pair of stints on the injured list with right rotator cuff inflammation (May 3-23 and June 1-Aug. 23).

POSTSEASON: Was not on the NLDS roster vs. Rockies but was added to the NLCS roster on Oct. 17 after Gio Gonzalez was placed on the injured list (sprained left ankle)…made his only postseason appearance in Game 5 of the NLCS @ Dodgers (0 ER in 1.0 IP).

Participated in the 2015 MLB All-Stars Futures Game at Great American Ball Park.

THE "BAT BOY"

- Earned the nickname "Bat Boy" during his rookie season in 2015 due to his youthful appearance.
- While with Milwaukee, Brewers' manager Craig Counsell told one of the security guards "the guy at the end of the bench [Davies] was pitching." The security guard asked, "Who? The Bat Boy?"

"If you get a little bit embarrassed and react to it, it doesn't do you any good. So if you just accept it, you laugh about it, you have fun with it, it kind of becomes a part of you. And at the same time, it shows people that I'm a small guy and I'm still playing baseball at the highest level and it's still possible."

"There's different people who play this game. Guys that are smaller, guys that are very skilled at certain things can still play this game. I think that was another reason I wanted to (have that nickname)."

- Displayed the nickname for the first time on the back of his jersey during the 2017 Players' Weekend.

ALMOST A SUN DEVIL

Committed to play college baseball at Arizona State University before getting drafted by the Orioles in 2011.

HOMETOWN HOMAGE

- Has a tattoo of the Seattle skyline on his left forearm to pay homage to his birthplace (Puyallup), just south of the city.
- Grew up a fan of the Mariners and Seahawks.

FINDING A WAY

- Is a 2011 graduate of Mesquite High School in Gilbert, Ariz.
- Always wanted to be a middle infielder, but during his junior year, he committed to only focus on pitching.
- As a freshman, he was 6-foot-1 and 140 pounds, but his coach Jeff Holland said he made up for lack of size with his defense and his pitching.

"He's a technician on the mound," Holland said. "He'll find your weaknesses, he'll keep you off-balance. You're thinking a fastball is coming in this count and he'll throw that Bugs Bunny change-up. You strikeout and go back to the dugout and go, 'How did that guy just beat me?' He'll find a way."

Started playing golf in the Valley at a young age and still enjoys playing in his free time…boasts a 1.5 handicap.

"I started golfing when I was 5 or 6 years old, about the same time I probably got involved in some sort of organized baseball. It's been a hobby as long as baseball has for me too…Everybody has a hobby or something to escape their every day job."

Has stuck with the mindset of brains over power since becoming a pro.

"I've always been a thinker. I never expected to have overpowering stuff. I knew where I was physically. I knew where I was at, skill-set wise. I was always trying to think. I was always trying to analyze games. I was always critiquing things. I know how incredibly hard it is to play baseball."

BE LIKE MIKE

His brother, David, turned on Arkansas' 2018 College World Series semifinals game vs. Florida State in the Angels' clubhouse and after watching Dominic hit a home run, Mike Trout gave him a call.

"He just finished his game and turned our game on in the Angels' locker room just in time for my at-bat. So, next thing you know I'm sitting in my hotel room on the phone with Mike Trout and it was just unbelievable."

"[Trout] just called and asked how it was, asked about Omaha, how the team is doing… I just didn't know what to say to a guy like that, probably one of the best baseball players of all time. It was just crazy."

PINEAPPLE POWER!

- When Lourdes made his debut in the Majors in 2018, he followed the look Yuli had created and continues to sport it.

"Very naturally, people started comparing [his hairstyle] with a pineapple. The results began to come and then the name 'Piña Power' came about. Then I came to Toronto with the same flow and they gave me the same nickname. It's something that just came naturally over the days."

FAMILY IS EVERYTHING

Over 100 friends and family made the trip to Cleveland, just 4 hours away from his hometown, to watch Henry's Major League debut on Aug. 3, 2022.

"It's a testament to their ability to be flexible, but also the willingness to travel and put in all the time," Henry said. "So, it's cool that they're still able to do that even at this level and at this time. I'm grateful for it. It's fun to see them after each game."

"It's been special," Henry told Arizona Sports' Wolf & Luke. "It was kind of a cool, unique experience to be able to debut in Cleveland, which isn't too far from Detroit, where my parents grew up. I left 74 tickets that day. I don't think that covered everyone from my hometown, friends or teachers that showed up. I heard there was a lot of people from Kalamazoo that came to the show."

MAJOR LEAGUE ADVICE

Looked up to fellow Greenfield, Indiana, native and former first-round draft pick, Kyle Gibson.

"A guy that I definitely looked up to was Kyle Gibson. His dad coached me in high school and helped me through the draft process. He helped me through a lot of stuff, and for a guy not to just blow me off and offers his time, it's hats off to him. It means a lot to me."

"I don't see any reasons why he can't make an appearance in Arizona sometime [in 2023]. The moment never seems too big. One thing I tried to press and pound into him is when you can strike people out, you're never really in a jam."

Former Amarillo Pitching Coach Shane Loux to Baseball America in 2022.

"The goal is to make it to the [Major Leagues], so I'm ok if I make it as either a reliever or a starter. Now it seems like I'm in my sweet spot as a relief pitcher, so if that's the way that I'm going to get there I'm going to continue."

"I'm so grateful to the D-backs for the support they gave me for my studies, to all the teachers that were always there for us in that process of our education. My family and I were so happy with that achievement. Education is something very important. As an athlete, we don't always have that opportunity to graduate. My mother and father were very happy when I came home with that diploma."

Martinez on his academic achievement.

"He was always a very discliplined player and student, very focused and mature for his age. His case is a special one. It was during the pandemic and obviously a difficult time for everyone. It could have been easy to stop working for a degree, but not Justin. I'm so proud that he continued to push through it and graduated. When we handed him his diploma while he was in his cap and gown I could see the look of joy in his eyes."

Coach, Latin American Coordinator Mariana Patraca, who has been involved with the program since 2016.

"It feels great to be back in the league. When I first went over to Japan, the first thought was to play there for a year and kind of propel myself back to the Major Leagues. But once I got to Japan, I loved it so much and I realized it was such a fantastic place. I considered spending the rest of my career there. The baseball was better than I expected. The fans were awesome. The Swallows treated me great. The whole experience was amazing. But if you throw well enough, there are scouts everywhere. A BOYHOOD IDOL

Fulfilled a dream when he got the opportunity to meet Venezuelan legend and one of his idols, Miguel Cabrera, during his first call-up to the Majors on June 11, 2022 @ Tigers.

"He's a legend to all of us in Venezuela. A Hall-of-Famer, God-willing. I'm extremely proud to have been able to meet him while making my debut versus Detroit. Extremely proud to be able to exchange a few words with him. It was really exciting."

WHAT ALMOST WASN'T

- Nearly had to give up his baseball dreams at age 9 in the late 2000s when Venezuela was suffering from food shortages, poverty issues, a country-wide energy crisis and an economic decline, which took its toll on Moreno's family.
- With 4 children to care for, Moreno's father, José, struggled to provide for the family, which led to the youngest Moreno having to quit organized baseball for lack of funds.

"My dad wasn't making much money. He couldn't find much money, and when he did, it was for food, not for baseball."

Gabriel Moreno to MLB.com.

- Moreno's baseball dream was kept alive thanks to Jose Mejia, president of the local "12 de Octubre" baseball school…Mejia believed in his ability so much that he did everything he could to ensure he got back on the field at age 11, including letting him stay at his home for days and becoming his main method of transportation getting to away games.

"He picked me up, dropped me off, made everything easier for me. He helped me return to baseball. Thanks to him, I was able to go to the academy that signed me. I'm so grateful for him. He's been like a father to me and his whole family has helped me so much."

SWITCHING TO SHORT

Grew up pitching primarily before switching to shortstop at the suggestion of his relative, Yewri Guillen.

"I loved being a pitcher," Perdomo said. "I'm a shortstop because of him."

I AM IRON MAN

Looked up to Cal Ripken Jr. growing up because he was the "Iron Man" who never missed a game…favorite current shortstops are Nick Ahmed and Brandon Crawford/SF for their defensive prowess.

FAMILIAL MOTIVATION

Credits his big league aspirations in large part to his late relative, Yewri Guillen, who passed away at 18 just months after signing a professional baseball contract with the Nationals.

"I want to make it there for him," Perdomo told The Athletic. "To make his dream come true, to represent him out there on the diamond. I have no doubt that I can make it."

Is also second cousins with former Brewers pitcher Luis Perdomo…Geraldo faced him for the first time on Sept. 1, 2022 vs. Brewers (singled).

"He is really like my brother more than my cousin," Perdomo said. "We are really close. I have faced him plenty of times in live batting practice and, I gotta tell you, it wasn't easy."

FATHER TO SON

Began playing baseball at age 4 and credits his father for introducing him to the game and teaching him everything he knows…played shortstop throughout his amateur career until he signed with the Royals and was transitioned to third base.

"Every day I would sit and wait with my glove for my dad to get home from work. He made me into a ball player. I have loved baseball since I was a kid. Everything I learned is thanks to him. Now I spend more time at the ballpark than at home."

"The opportunities we got had a lot to do with our parents putting in tons of hours," said Beau. "We want to give back and help kids get into college and to play baseball in college, and live out their dreams of pursuing baseball as long as they can."

LUIS GONZALEZ AWARD

In 2015, the Luis Gonzalez Award was created, which will be given annually to the D-backs player who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the D-backs legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff.

David Peralta was honored in a pregame ceremony on Oct. 3, 2021 as winner of the annual award.

One of the most popular figures in Arizona Diamondbacks history because of the way he interacted with fans and his game-winning single in Game 7 of the 2001 World Series to give the organization its first World Championship, Gonzalez became the first former player to have his number retired by the D-backs during a pre-game ceremony in 2010.

NO-HITTERS

RANDY JOHNSON ON MAY 18, 2004 @ BRAVES

Adept at setting records throughout his career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, at Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since the Yankees' David Cone on July 18, 1999 vs. Montreal. It was also the first perfecto in the National League since the Expos' Dennis Martínez on July 28, 1991 @ Dodgers.

UNOFFICIALLY MADISON BUMGARNER ON APRIL 25 @ BRAVES [GAME 2]

Madison Bumgarner tossed MLB's first unofficial no-hitter (7.0 IP) on April 25, 2021 @ Braves [Game 2] under the new doubleheader rules that began in 2020, facing the minimum 21 batters.

In an effort to speed the proceedings during the coronavirus pandemic, Major League Baseball declared that games played as part of a doubleheader would be scheduled to last 7.0 innings instead of 9.0.

Although the game was officially a "complete game", the league stated that it would abide by the definition of the Elias Sports Bureau: "No-hitters by teams and individuals shall not be credited in scheduled seven-inning games, unless the game goes to extra innings and the team (or individual in a complete game) pitches at least nine innings and does not allow a hit."

It marked Bumgarner's 300th career start, 16th complete game and seventh shutout.

JACKIE ROBINSON

MLB CAREER

YEARS: 1947-1956

AWARDS: 6x NL All-Star (1949-54), 1947 Rookie of the Year, 1949 NL Most Valuable Player.

NOTES: Bud Selig announced on April 15, 1997, that Jackie Robinson's No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball, barring players on any Major League club to wear the number…as an exception to the retired number policy, MLB has recently begun honoring Robinson's legacy by allowing players to wear No. 42 on April 15 each season to celebrate Jackie Robinson Day…for the 60th anniversary of Robinson's Major League debut, MLB invited players to wear No. 42 on Jackie Robinson Day in 2007…the gesture was originally the idea of Ken Griffey, Jr., who sought Rachel Robinson's permission to wear the number…after receiving her permission, Selig not only allowed Griffey to wear the number, but also extended an invitation to all clubs to do the same.

HALL OF FAME INDUCTION: 1962

HONORING & REMEMBERING OUR FRIENDS

STEVE PASCENTE MEMORIAL MEDIA LOUNGE | MARCH 12, 1954-OCTOBER 15, 1994

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft as a sports reporter/anchor for 12 News/KPNX-TV and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the D-backs opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

DICK DOZER MEMORIAL PRESS BOX | MARCH 12, 1925-JANUARY 4, 1994

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. He arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Phoenix Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an old-timers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs' inception as team president from 1995-2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.

JOHN MICHAELSON RADIO BOOTH

The Arizona Sports 620 radio booth was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on D-backs broadcasts, Michaelson was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

JOE GILMARTIN MEMORIAL SEAT | MAY 26, 1929-FEBRUARY 27, 2018

Joe Gilmartin, who passed away in 2018, was an iconic Valley writer who earned the highest honor with the 2014 Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame's Curt Gowdy Media Award. He was a 16-time Arizona Sportswriter of the Year, a 2015 inductee into the Arizona Sports Hall of Fame and in 2004, was the second inductee into the Associated Press Sports Editors Arizona Sports Writers' Hall of Fame. Gilmartin covered 25 NBA Finals, 15 Final Fours, 20 Super Bowls and 14 World Series, including the D-backs' 2001 world championship run. He had a 34-year career with the Phoenix Gazette from 1962-96. He covered the Phoenix Suns as a beat writer and broadcast analyst, which led to his book "The Little Team That Could…And Darn Near Did!," a look back at the Suns' 1976 NBA Finals run. Late in his career, he served as a contributing writer to D-backs Publications and the D-backs' and Suns' websites. Gilmartin's son, Leo, has been a member of the D-backs' broadcasting department since 1996.

BOB BAUM HONORARY ASSOCIATED PRESS SEAT

Bob Baum, who retired in early 2019, covered the D-backs for the Associated Press for 21 seasons, starting in July 1998 through the 2018 season. Overall, Baum spent 43 years with the AP, highlighted by assignments to cover seven Summer Olympics, all but one in track and field, three Winter Olympics and most other major sporting events including two Super Bowls, one World Series and numerous NBA Finals, NCAA Final Fours and college football championships.
